

Nirupam is a traitor;
voters must teach him lesson : Uddhav Thackrey

Mumbai, Saturday : " Sanjay Nirupam got name and fame because of Balasaheb, but he is a traitor. He left Balasaheb for personal gains. Voters must teach him lesson", was an appeal made by Shri Uddhav Thackrey, Executive President, Shivsena. Shri Thackrey was addressing campaign meeting of Shri Ram Naik, BJP-Shivsena candidate from North Mumbai.

Shri Thackrey further said, "The politics is crowded with selfish people like Nirupam. However, there is a ray of hope as there are few personalities like Shri Ram Naik. Since the beginning of his career he is attached to one political party, one ideology and one constituency. He is pride of Maharashtra."

BJP State President Shri Nitin Gadkari said, "Congress is neglecting Maharashtra. Voters must think why 15,000 farmers of the country attempted suicide and why not even a single farmer took such devastating step in State of Gujrat? It is most unfortunate state; more so as the Agricultural Minister Shri Sharad Pawar belongs to Maharashtra."

Shri Ram Naik elaborated on his manifesto and promised speedy completion of all pending railway projects of MUTP I and II. Shri Naik said that problems of suburban railway commuters would get top priority in his agenda.
