

For favour of publicity

25th December 2008

Leprosy Affected Persons to offer
tributes to attack victims

Mumbai, Thursday : One month will be completed on 26th December for the attack on Mumbai by the terrorists. Representatives of organizations of Leprosy Affected Persons in Maharashtra will come-together in Mumbai tomorrow to pray their tributes for the victims. Shri Ram Naik, former Petroleum Minister will also join according to the press statement released by Maharashtra Kushthapidit Sanghatana.

Maharashtra Kushthapidit Sanghatana will hold a prayer meeting on 26th December at 11.00 am at Azad Maidan in memory of all the brave victims of police and security services and also the innocent citizens who were killed by the terrorists. In addition to Shri Ram Naik, former Petroleum Minister, Sarvashri Prakash Kulkarni (Kalyan), Baliram Tambade (Turbhe), Bhupal Phirgane (Kalyan), Ashok Ambekar (Panvel) and Bhimrao Madhale (Borivli) leaders of various Leprosy Affected Persons' colonies will join the prayers. Shri Prakash Kulkarni, President, Maharashtra Kushthapidit Sanghatana has appealed to the citizens to join the prayer meeting in good number.

(Office Secretary)