

For Favour of Publicity

1st July, 2009

Ram Naik condemns price hike on eve of budget session

Mumbai, Wednesday: "Budget session is at the door steps. Petroleum Minister Shri Murli Deora has breached the propriety. He should have taken the parliament in confidence before increasing the prices of diesel and petrol. The woes of the common-man who is already overburdened because of inflation would have no end." said Shri Ram Naik, former Petroleum Minister while reacting on price hike of diesel and petrol.

(Office Secretary)