This shocking information is revealed by Shri Ram Naik, former Minister of State for Railways (Independent Charge) in a press statement issued today.

Once the Lok Sabha poll results were announced on 16th May; it was evident that Shri Laloo Prasad would no more be the Railway Minister. The new cabinet took oath on 22nd May. Just three days before this ceremony, on 19th May Shri Laloo Prasad issued an order which revised complimentary card pass facility. As per the new order the former Railway Minister will get I AC complimentary pass card with three companions in the same class and one attendant in II AC sleeper class. Shri Ram Naik questioning the need of so many companions remarked that the decision is improper and unethical.

Shri Naik said that it is a known practice to review decisions taken by preceding Minister during election period. In a letter written to Smt. Mamata Banerjee, Shri Ram Naik has demanded that she should revoke the order.
