

For Favour of Publicity,

29th March, 2009

Ram Naik appeals activists of alliance
Let's work hard to bring change.

Mumbai, Sunday: "The country is going through a bad phase of recession, inflation, unemployment and lack of security. To change the scenario we must dedicate ourselves to bring good governance. Let's work hard for it", appealed Shri Ram Naik, former Petroleum Minister & BJP-Shivsena's candidate from North Mumbai Parliamentary constituency. Shri Naik was speaking at the two joint conferences of Shivsena-BJP activists at Borivli and Malad.

"Both BJP and Shivsena have formed booth committees. Now these workers have to gear up for the election with full force", said Shri Vinod Ghosalkar, Vibhag Pramukh, Shivsena while appealing the fellow activists. Shri Gopal Shetty, President, BJP-Mumbai said, "we must dedicate activists not just to bring change in the government but we have to win North Mumbai with the highest margin."

Shri Bhai Girkar, Vice President, BJP, Maharashtra and Shri Yogesh Sagar, President, BJP-North Mumbai also addressed the gathering. S/Shri J.P. Thakur, Ramesh Medhekar, Atul Bhatkarlkar, Pravin Shah, Bhalchandra Mhatre, Vijay Walawakar, Madhukar Raut, Shirdhar Shelar, Gangaram Jamnani, R.U. Singh, Dnyanmurti Sharma, Ram Barrot, S/Smt. Shailaja Girkar, Hansaben Desai, Shobha Pansare, Geeta Chaphekar, Bharati Keni etc. were other leaders present for the conference.

(Vinod Shelar)
Media In-charge
Mobile No.9867683540