

India unsafe and helpless in UPA Regime : Ravi Shankar Prasad

Mumbai, Monday: "India is unsafe and helpless in UPA regime. Economist Dr. Manmohan Singh has failed to lead the country and take it out of economic crisis. Now country needs firm and able leader like Shri L.K. Advani," said Shri Ravi Shankar Prasad, National spokesman of BJP in the city. Shri Ravi Shankar was addressing huge gathering held to release Annual Performance Report of Shri Ram Naik, former Petroleum Minister at kandivli.

Shri Ravi Shankar sternly criticized UPA for blackmarketing of kerosen and LPG. He recalled the regime of Shri Ram Naik when not only refill LPG cylinder but even new connection was available on demand. He also praised Shri Naik for his tireless efforts for improving life of Mumbai railway commuters.

While once again reiterating Shivsena's support to Shri L.K. Advani as Prime Ministerial candidate, veteran Shivsena leader Shri Manohar Joshi released Shri Naik's fifth Annual Performance Report. Shri Joshi applauded Shri Ram Naik for not just maintaining cordial relations with all communities but for rendering devoted services to the neglected section of the society like leprocy affected persons. He also congratulated Shri Naik for finding duplicate voters of the constituency.

Shri Ram Naik updated the audience of the important works done by him in the last year and assured to take up issues like Charkop Metro Car Shed, private forest land, problems of railway commuters on priority.

Shivsena-BJP candidate from North-West Parliamentary Constituency Shri Gajanan Kirtikar, Shri Gopal Shetty, MLA and President, BJP Mumbai, Shri Yogesh Sagar, President BJP North Mumbai, Shri Shivkumar Jha, Municipal Councilor were other prominent leaders who addressed the meeting.
